

2022-2023 AEM PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

AEM has partnered with professional practitioners for an exciting schedule of professional development for the 2022-2023 school year! Join other aspiring educators from across the state in virtual trainings that go beyond the college classroom.

Winter & Spring 2022-2023 Sessions

Supporting Student Resiliency

January 18, 2023 at 7:00 p.m.

Unfortunately, many of our students come to us having experienced trauma. The pandemic has only served to exacerbate this issue. In this course, participants will learn the influences that create resiliency in people. We will discuss how to leverage strategies to support our students become resilient and ready to learn.

Creating a Learning Environment to Support Independent Learners

February 15, 2023 at 7:00 p.m.

In this course, participants will discuss instructional strategies and learn how social emotional learning and DEI (diversity, equity, inclusion) play a role in helping to support ALL students in their quest to be independent learners. We will address strategies to support struggling learners to build foundational skills and the confidence needed for success. We will address IEPs, 504s, and when/how to seek additional support for students who need it.

Exploring Educator Ethics

March 15, 2023 at 7:00 p.m.

In this course, participants will examine the MDE Educator Ethics. We will explore how to fulfil our ethical responsibilities to the students, communities, and employers we serve. We will discuss common ethical mistakes educators make and what we need to do to avoid them.

Register below!

REGISTER

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/AEMPDWinter-Spring23>

SAVE THE DATE:

2023 MEA

Conference for Aspiring and Early Career Educators

Saturday, March 25, 2023

9:00am - 2:00pm
A Virtual Offering

Available to AEM and MEA members in good standing at no cost!

Our keynote speaker
is Nanette Hanson, Michigan Teacher of the Year 2022-2023

For questions, please email us at AEM@mea.org